Operation Smile is excited to announce the 2009 International Student Leadership Conference (ISLC) held at Christopher Newport University in Newport News, Virginia.
August 4-8, 2009.

The ISLC is a fun, cultural, and experiential 4 days offering students the unique opportunity of hearing from some of the most dynamic and inspirational people and community leaders of today. You will learn about topics such as leadership, facing challenges, the power of one, and what it takes to make a difference in your life, and in your world! You'll be immersed in a series of educational and interactive workshops and activities helping to instill responsibility, purpose and a commitment to service. This conference is open to any high school and college student. The exciting and innovative seminars will help any student enhance self-confidence and learn to achieve maximum results NOW!
